2. HIDAACI shall initiate immediately the control procedure, as provided in Articles 4 paragraph 4 and 33 of this law.
3. Within three months after entry into force of this law, the assessee shall, under Article 179/b paragraph 4, sentence two of the Constitution be entitled to file a written request addressed to the Commission with the purpose of asset assessment. The request shall be accompanied by the filled-in asset declaration as per annex 2 of this Law.

Article 32

Declaration of Assets

1. The assessee and his or her related persons along with the declaration of assets shall submit, all the documents justifying the veracity of the declarations regarding the legitimacy of the source of creation of the assets..
2. In case the assessee is objectively not able to present the document which justifies the legitimacy of the creation of the assets, he or she should attest to the re-evaluation institutions that the document has disappeared, has been lost, cannot be remade or cannot be obtained in any other way. The re-evaluation institutions decide if the non-presentation of justifying documents is for reasonable causes. This rule applies also in case the responsible authority for issuing the justifying documents does not replied in due time.
3. If the assessee or related persons have assets outside the territory of the Republic of Albania, he or she shall submit the bank statement of last years, most current property records, or other documents demonstrating the value of the foreign-located asset.
4. The assessee and his or her related persons or other related persons who have been declared in the capacity of donors, lenders and borrowers, if they confirm these relations, shall bare the obligation to justify the legitimacy of the source of the creation of these assets.
5. The declarations of private and property interests previously submitted to HIDAACI can be used as evidence by the Commission and the Appeal Chamber.

Article 33

Procedure of Re-evaluation of Assets

1. HIDAACI based on declarations of assets shall conduct a full audit procedure in compliance with this law, the Law "On the declaration and audit of assets, financial obligations of elected persons and certain public officials, the Law "On prevention of conflict of interest in exercising public functions" and the "Code of Administrative Procedures".
2. The General Inspector of HIDAACI, for the purpose of this assessment, can request through the General Directorate of Prevention of Money Laundering or Ministry of Justice records of assets owned by assessee or their related persons, or any financial transactions in Albania or abroad according to Law "On prevention of money laundering and financing of terrorism" or documents used abroad by assessees or their related persons. Such documents or information can be used as evidence before the Commission or Appeal Chamber.

3. HIDAACI provides full access to international observers, upon their request, to seek information, consult, copy or investigate declaration of assets submitted by the assessee or his or her related persons and their accompanying documents.

4. HIDAACI shall conduct a full audit procedure as soon as possible but no longer than 180 days as of the day of asset declaration submission.

5. Upon completion of the inspection, the General Inspector of HIDAACI shall prepare a detailed and reasoned report, as the case might be, ascertaining that:

- a) Accurate declaration in compliance with the law, with the legitimate financial sources and is not found in the situation of conflicts of interest;
- b) Lack of legitimate financial sources to justify the assets;
- c) Concealment of asset;
- d) False declaration;
- e) The assessee is found in a situation of conflicts of interests.

CHAPTER V

BACKGROUND ASSESSMENT

Article 34

The Object of Background Assessment

The object of background assessment shall be the verification of assessee's declarations and other data with the purpose of identifying the assessees with inappropriate contacts with persons involved in the organized crime, in accordance with the principles and conditions provided for in Article DH of the Annex of the Constitution.

Article 35

Initiation of the Procedure for Background Assessment

1. Assessee shall compile the declaration form on background assessment as per Annex no. 3 of this law and shall send it within 30 days from the date of entry into force of this Law to the Classified Information Security Directorate.

2. The Classified Information Security Directorate shall initiate immediately the procedure of background assessment, in compliance with the provisions of Article 4, paragraph 4, Articles 37 and 38 of this law.

3. Within three months after entry into force of this law, the assessee mentioned in Article 179/b paragraph 4, sentence two of the Constitution may file a written request addressed to the Commission for the background assessment. The request shall be attached to the form for the declaration of background check, as per the Annex 3 of this Law.

Article 36

The Structure Responsible for Background Assessment

1. The re-evaluation institutions in collaboration with the Classified Information Security Directorate are responsible for administering the background checks. The Classified Information Security Directorate shall be entitled to appoint additional officials to administer the background check for the purposes of this law. Persons conducting the background assessment shall comply with all applicable standards for the protection of privacy and confidentiality in office.
2. The Classified Information Security Directorate, State Intelligence Service and Internal Intelligence and Complaint Service near the Ministry of Internal Affairs shall establish a working group to carry out the tasks under this law. Personnel shall be seconded from these structures to the work group for no less than a one-year period.
3. The Classified Information Security Directorate, based on the request of the working group or of the re-evaluation institutions shall establish liaisons with foreign countries to obtain information about persons involved in organized crime or the persons suspected of being involved in the organised crime for the purposes of this law.

Article 37

Tasks of the Working Group

The working group has to abide by the general requirements of the background assessment, being as follows:

- a) Accurate verification of identity, in the past and present for every individual;
- b) Verification if it has demonstrated criminal tendencies of involvement in organised crime;
- c) General evaluation whether the individual might be put under the pressure of criminal structures;
- ç) Having been or being or attempting to be involved covertly solely, in complicity or in the composition of a criminal organisation.

Article 38

Standards Governing Background Assessment

1. The background assessment shall be conducted based upon the most accurate evidence, intelligence and information available.
2. The background assessment shall be conducted on objective bases and free of impact of personal animosity or personal favouritism, which could favour or disfavour the assessee.
3. The background assessment shall include an evaluation of evidence and information that must include conditions that support a finding under paragraphs 4 and 6 of this Article and conditions that mitigate against a finding under paragraphs 5 and 7 of this Article. The assessment shall contain the circumstances, which are taken into account in the finding, as well as the mitigating circumstances of this finding. Any background assessment that does fail to consider supporting and mitigating conditions is incomplete.

4. Conditions that support a finding of inappropriate contact with a person involved with the organized crime are in particular:

- a) The assessee has been photographed or a witness describes a meeting with a person involved with the organized crime.
- b) The assessee or a member of his or her related persons has held a non-casual communication with a person involved with the organized crime.
- c) The assessee or a member of his or her related persons has exchanged money, favours, gifts or property with a person involved with the organized crime
- ç) The assessee is closely related to a person involved with the organized crime.
- d) The assessee participates in or attends meetings with one or more persons involved with the organized crime. The person's alleged membership in organized crime is well known, has been publicized, or is a matter documented in the respective registers.

5. Conditions that mitigate a finding of inappropriate contact with a person involved with the organized crime are in particular:

- a) The assessee submits plausibly that he is unaware that the person is a person involved with the organized crime. This condition can be counterbalanced by factors in paragraph 4 of this Article.
- b) The assessee's family relationship with the person involved with the organized crime is distant, or involves rare family contact.
- c) The assessee has been open, truthful and complete about the contacts and has distanced himself or herself from them. This condition can be counterbalanced by the timing or perceived motivation of the assessee's actions.
- ç) The assessee was aware that the person is a person involved with the organized crime, but was unaware that he or she would attend a meeting or was tricked into attending. This condition can be counterbalanced by factors in paragraph 4 of this Article.
- d) The assessee's contacts were over five years old and there are no indications that they continued. This condition can be counterbalanced by the degree of seriousness of the contacts or by factors provided for in paragraph 4 of this Article.
- dh) Any other credible mitigating factor being submitted plausibly by the assessee.

6. Conditions that support a finding that background declaration was not completed fully and truthfully are in particular:

- a) The assessee fails to list a contact which is established by relevant and credible evidence.
- b) The assessee fails to list a contact which is established by relevant and credible intelligence which is corroborated or deemed reliable.
- c) The assessee fails to list a contact which is established by relevant and credible information which is supported by other evidence, and the assessee has other contacts which were either listed or established under this paragraph, or there is other evidence of a benefit, action or consequence from the contact which creates a reasonable suspicion that the obtained information is the only plausible explanation.

7. Conditions being taken account of that mitigate a finding that the background declaration was not completed fully and truthfully are in particular:

- a) The assessee lists a contact but the date or location is not correct, and this appears to be due to simple error or confusion.

- b) The assessee fails to list a contact, but has been truthful and complete about other contacts, and this omission appears to be due to simple error or confusion.
- c) The contact occurred at a location with numerous people and it is credible that the contact would not have been memorable or seemed insignificant. This condition can be counterbalanced by the degree of seriousness of the contact or by other factors under this paragraph.
- ç) The assessee fails to list a contact which involves a family member, and conditions of that contact would not have been memorable or seemed significant. This condition can be counterbalanced by the degree of seriousness of the contact or by other factors under this Article.
- d) The assessee is believably unaware of the fact that the person is a person involved with the organized crime. This condition can be counterbalanced by factors provided for under paragraph 6 of this Article;
- dh) Any other credible factor, which is submitted plausibly by the assessee.

Article 39

Procedure of Background Assessment

1. The Classified Information Security Directorate in collaboration with the working group within 60 days of the formation of the working group, shall verify whether the information is accurate and whether the assessee has any inappropriate contacts with persons involved with the organized crime or alleged members of organized crime. At the end of the 60 days, the Classified Information Security Directorate may ask the Commission for a 30 days extension of the verification period, in particular if information has been requested from other states.
2. Within 10 days of the completion of the assessment, the Classified Information Security Directorate shall submit to the Commission the document/report after being prepared by the working group. This document/report determines whether an assessee has completed the background declaration fully and truthfully, and whether there is information in the background declaration or elsewhere which indicates that the assessee has inappropriate contacts with persons involved in organized crime, and a recommendation about the appropriateness for the office. This document shall provide a description of those contacts and conditions considered under Article 38 of this law. Information shall not be disclosed if it endangers the safety of a source or is a result of a condition from a foreign government.

CHAPTER VI

PROFICIENCY ASSESSMENT

Article 40

The Object of Proficiency Assessment

The Proficiency Assessment shall evaluate assesseees according to their ethical and professional activities in compliance with this law and the legislation that regulates the status of judges or prosecutors.

Article 41

Initiation of Re-evaluation Procedure for Proficiency Assessment

1. Assesseees shall compile the self-evaluation form as per Annex no.4 attached to this law and shall send it within 30 days from the date of entry into force of this Law to the proficiency assessment body.
2. Within three months after entry into force of this law, the assesses mentioned in Article 179/b paragraph 4 sentence two of the Constitution may file a written request addressed to the Commission with the purpose to be re-evaluated. The request shall be accompanied by the filled-in self-evaluation form as per annex no.4 of this Law.
3. The proficiency assessment period shall, for the purposes of this law, be for the past three calendar years of exercising the duties from the entry into force of this law. In case the assessee has less than three years in office, the re-evaluation period shall consist of all years of exercising this duty.
4. The proficiency re-evaluation period may be extended to the period starting from 1 January 2006 onwards in particular if relevant information on the ethical and professional performance of the assessee is available. The Commission or Appeal Chamber shall take this information into consideration if the rapporteur or the international observer considers it to be relevant for the re-evaluation.

Article 42

Sources of Re-evaluation of Proficiency Assessment

1. The Constitutional Court judges, High Court judges and all judges and prosecutors shall be re-evaluated based on sources provided in the legislation that regulates the status of judges or prosecutors. The General Prosecutor shall be evaluated based on the performance of his duties provided in Article 8 of the Law nr. 8737/2001 "On the organisation and functioning of the prosecution office in the Republic of Albania", as amended, for a period of three years starting from the beginning of the mandate.
2. The legal adviser at the Constitutional Court, and legal assistants of High Court and administrative courts and Prosecution Office, that are not magistrates, shall be assessed based on:
 - a) Prepared reports and legal opinions; and
 - b) Results of the exam at the School of Magistrates.
3. The inspector shall be re-evaluated based on the criteria contained in the decision 36, dated 29.04.2015, of the High Council of Justice, "On the criteria and procedures for the proficiency and ethic evaluation of the Chief inspector and the inspectors of the High Council of Justice".
4. The second paragraph of this law shall apply to former advisors of the Constitutional Court and former legal advisors of the High Court with at least 3 years of work experience in this function as well as for the inspectors who are not magistrates.
5. Former judges, prosecutors shall be re-evaluated based on following sources;
 - a) 5 legal documents produced by the assessee during the professional work;
 - b) Performance evaluation reports during the period of assuming office;
 - c) If sufficient evaluation reports for a proficiency assessment of former judges or prosecutors are not available, he shall undergo the exam of the School of Magistrate in accordance with paragraph 2, letter b of this Article and the provisions of Law on the School of Magistrates in the Republic of Albania.

Article 43

Procedure for Proficiency Assessment

1. The re-evaluation procedure shall be carried out in accordance with the legislation that regulates the status of judges or prosecutors, as far as applicable.
2. The relevant proficiency assessment body reviews legal documents issued by the assessee during the period subject to re-evaluation. The body, after reviewing the legal documents selected by the assessee according to Annex 4 and the 5 legal documents selected through an objective and random system, shall prepare a detailed and reasoned report. This report shall be submitted to the Commission, immediately, but not later than 90 days of receipt of the self-evaluation form.
3. It is the responsibility of every assessee and the relevant organs to ensure that the re-evaluation institutions receive the required documents. If the re-evaluation institutions do not obtain the documents required, the Rapporteur shall give a 5 day notice to the assessee or the relevant organ to provide them. Failure to cooperate may result for the assessee in an assessment of “inadequate”, while the relevant organs are held liable according to Article 50 paragraph 6 of this law.
4. If the Rapporteur has obtained reliable examples of the assessee’s work in accordance with Article 49 of this law from the public or through other means, however, it may continue with the process of the proficiency assessment.
5. The Rapporteur, in extraordinary cases where information is complex or difficult to obtain, may request an extension of time from the Commission.

Article 44

Re-evaluation Report

The Rapporteur shall prepare the proficiency report based on the report of the Inspectors, the information received from other sources, and on evaluation criteria of the legislation that regulates the status of judges or prosecutors and other legal acts. In the end, the rapporteur shall propose issuance of following rates for the assessee:

- a) “Competent”: The assessee has demonstrated an acceptable quality of work, fair judgment; has routinely observed rights of litigants or victims, and is acceptably efficient and effective.
- b) ‘Deficient’: The assessee has demonstrated an unacceptable quality of work, poor judgment, has not duly observed rights of litigants or victims, is ineffective. The Commission recommends a training program at the School of Magistrates designed to repair these deficiencies within one year;
- c) ‘Inadequate’: The assessee has demonstrated an unacceptable quality of work, poor judgment, has not routinely observed rights of litigants or victims, or is inefficient or ineffective to the extent that the training program at the School of Magistrates, cannot resolve this issue within a year or has not successfully passed the exam at the School of Magistrates.

CHAPTER VII

Article 52

Burden of Proof

1. The Commission and the Appeal Chamber are guided during the review of the case by the principles of objectivity and proportionality.

2. If the Commission or the Appeal Chamber concludes that the evidence has reached the standard of proof under Article 45 of this law, the reevaluation subject has the burden of proof to present evidence or other explanations to prove the contrary.

3. The provisions of Article 82 of the Code of Administrative Procedure do not apply.

Article 53

Participation of the Public in Denunciation of Facts

1. Each person who becomes aware of facts or circumstances which might constitute evidence related to the re-evaluation criteria has the right to inform directly re-evaluation institutions. The re-evaluation institution is obligated to review whether the information is received by a known or anonymous person.
2. The information shall contain the necessary basis to assess the legal misconduct according to re-evaluation criteria, specifically details on the suspected action or practice, legal consequences and circumstances on facts, which create the trust that there has been law infringement as well as the data on the identity of the person.
3. Withdrawal of the information by the informant does not lead automatically to suspending the investigation if the Commission or the Appeal Chamber considers that allegations provide sufficient grounds for an ex officio investigation.
4. The Commission or Appeal Chamber shall publish a denunciation template in order to facilitate submission of information by the public.
5. The rights and interests of persons who denounce shall be automatically protected in trustable, effective and appropriate manner, according to the same standards provided in Law "On whistleblower and protection of whistle-blowers".

Article 54

Justice Collaborator

1. The person who participated in the commission of a corruption offence with the assessee is entitled to address the competent prosecution office for investigating corruption charges according to the criminal legislation.
2. The prosecutor can grant to the person the status of justice collaborator if the latter is willing to give sufficient evidence, about a concrete corruption charge involving him or her and the assessee.
3. The person is entitled to be represented by a defence council.
4. If a collaboration agreement is reached, the justice collaborator must give full information, without any reserve or condition, on all the facts, events and circumstances, which serve as decisive evidence for the discovery, investigation, trial or prevention of corruption of assessee. The written statement of a justice collaborator done in front of the prosecutor constitutes a valid evidence for the re-evaluation and all other legal procedures.
5. The justice collaborator is not prosecuted for the corruption activities with assessee which the person confesses in the written statement. A copy of the statement and collaboration agreement shall be granted to the justice collaborator and re-evaluation institutions.
6. The collaboration agreement can be revoked, if the justice collaborator is not delivering evidence to the re-evaluation institutions or made false statements for which criminal proceedings shall start in accordance with the criminal legislation.
7. The assessee having benefited the amount shall be obliged to reimburse the bribe to the justice collaborator even if the latter violated the law as well. The assessee cannot claim that the enrichment incurred due to this amount has been lost in the meantime. The reimbursement can be claimed directly from the related persons of the assessee, if it is asserted that they have obtained from the assessee an amount exceeding 100.000 ALL without legal grounds for the period of time starting from 1.1.2006. Assessee and related persons have the right to file regress claim before the court against the third parties, which might have benefitted the respective amount.

Article 55

Hearing

1. The Commission shall invite the assessee to a hearing in conformity with the rules provided in the Administrative Procedure Code. International observers shall be notified accordingly about the conduct of the hearing.
2. The Commission's hearings shall be held in public as provided in Article 20 of Law "On the organization and functioning of administrative courts and adjudication of administrative disputes".
3. The Commission shall have the right to interrogate the assessee. If the assessee consents to answer the international observer and the panel may ask questions. The assessee has the right to refuse to answer questions. Questions can include a test of knowledge and practical skills in the field of law the assessee has worked within the last year.
4. The Commission may reasonably limit the time provided for the assessee to speak.
5. All deliberations on making the decision regarding the assessee are held behind closed doors in the presence of the international observer. All decisions by the Commission shall be taken by open vote and by simple majority of the panel members. In case of dissenting or concurring opinions during the decision making process, the Commissioner which has a dissenting/concurring opinion must present them in writing by providing the grounds. International observers are entitled to write a dissenting opinion which shall accompany the final decision. Minutes of deliberations of the case shall be kept by the register staff of the Commission.
6. The decision is announced at the end of the hearing.
7. The written decision shall be notified to the assessee, the public commissioner and international observers within 30 days after the end of the hearing. The decision shall be published on the Commission's website.

Article 56

Resignation

1. The assessee has the right to resignation not later than three months from the entry into force of this law. The resignation shall be submitted in written form to the President of the Republic and shall be published in its official website. In case of resignation, the Commission shall issue a decision on the termination of the re-evaluation proceedings.
2. If an assessee resigns, the assessee shall have the right to receive a transitory payment according to Article 7 paragraph 1 of Law "On supplementary state pensions of officials who exercise constitutional functions and other state officials".

Article 57
Decision of the Commission

1. The Rapporteur shall provide the decision of the Commission with a written reasoning.
2. The decision shall contain the introduction, the descriptive-justifying and the ordering part.
3. The introduction of the decision shall mention:
 - a) The official name of the Commission
 - b) The panel which has adjudicated the case and the administrative assistant;
 - c) Time and place of the issued decision;
 - ç) Name and generalities of the assessee, as well as their representatives;
 - d) Opinion of the assessee or his/her representatives;
4. The descriptive-justifying part shall mention:
 - a) Circumstances of the case, as they have been assessed during the process, and the conclusions drawn by the Panel;
 - b) Evidence and reasons on which the decision is based;
 - c) Report and Recommendation of the Rapporteur.
 - ç) Legal provisions on which the decision is based.
5. The ordering part, among others, shall mention:
 - a) The alternative determined by the panel;
 - b) If the Panel has decided to issue a disciplinary measure;
 - c) The right of appeal and the time-period for its filling.

Article 58
Disciplinary Measures

1. At the end of the process, the Commission may decide regarding the assessees:
 - a) Confirmation in duty;
 - b) Suspension from duty for a period of one year and the obligation to follow the training program at the School of Magistrates according to the approved curricula;
 - c) Dismissal from office.
2. In case of the assessees provided in Article 179/b paragraph 4, second sentence, of the Constitution, who have successfully passed the re-evaluation, the Commission can decide:
 - a) Appointment as judge or prosecutor in accordance with the provisions of the legislation that regulates the status of judges or prosecutors;
 - b) Refusal of appointment as judge or prosecutor, in compliance with the provisions of the legislation regulating the status of judges or prosecutors.

Article 59
Confirmation in Duty

1. The decision on the confirmation in duty may only be issued if the assessee meets all the following conditions together:
 - a) Achieves trustable level of asset assessment;

- b) Achieves trustable level of background assessments;
 - c) Achieves a minimally qualified level in the proficiency assessment;
2. The above mentioned paragraph is not applicable in case of Article 61 paragraph 5 of this law.
 3. The Commission may reason in its decision that the assessee is qualified to continue assuming their position, explaining reasons of not issuing a disciplinary action.
 4. Although the Commission decides to issue the decision of confirmation in duty, it has the right to transfer the file to the competent body for the inspection, if the Commission identifies reasons which constitute disciplinary misconduct in accordance with the legislation that regulates the status of judges or prosecutors, or if it identifies reasons to be consider during the periodic evaluation. This decision is not appealable.
The competent body begins immediately the review of reasons in accordance with the legislation that regulates the status of judges or prosecutors.

Article 60

Suspension from Office and the Obligation to Attend the Training Program

1. The suspension from office and the obligation to undertake a one year training program shall be imposed on the assessee if deficiencies have been detected in his or her proficiency that can be remedied.
2. If the assessee completes the training program, the School of Magistrates shall provide the General Secretary of the Commission and international observers with the final exam scores and a certification that the deficiency has been remedied or not remedied.
3. The Commission shall notify the assessee with 10 days to submit a written explanation on the reasons for the failure to graduate with satisfactory results the training program during the suspension period. A copy of the notification shall be given to the international observer.

Article 61

Dismissal from Office

The dismissal from office of the assessee shall be imposed as a disciplinary measure in the following cases:

1. When it results that the assessee has declared more than double the amount justified by legitimate income, including also persons related to him or her;
2. If the background assessment has determined that the assessee presents grave concerns to have inappropriate contacts to persons involved in the organized crime, which makes it impossible for the assessee to hold the position;
3. If the assessee has done insufficient declaration for the background and asset criteria, as per the provisions of Article 39 and 33 and of this law;
4. If the proficiency assessment has determined that the assessee is inadequate;
5. If the overall assessment in the sense of Article 4 paragraph 2 of this law finds that the assessee jeopardizes the public trust in the justice system and he is under the circumstances of impossibility for remedying the deficiencies through a training program.

CHAPTER VIII

APPEAL

Article 62

Rights of the Assessee after the Decision of the Commission

1. The assessee, who has exercised the right to appeal against the Commission's decision on the disciplinary measure of dismissal from office, shall be suspended ex lege from his or her duties pending the decision of the Chamber of Appeal. During the suspension period, the assessee shall have the right to receive 75% of the salary in accordance with Article F paragraph 5 of the Annex of the Constitution.
2. In such a case, the assessee shall not be entitled to examine and adjudicate cases. The assessee is obliged to provide an alternative email address to continue the communication with the re-evaluation institutions during the entire process.
3. If no alternative electronic address is available as provided above, the assessee shall be notified in accordance with Article 52 of the Law "On the organisation and functioning of administrative court and the adjudication of administrative disputes".

Article 63

Filing an Appeal

1. The decisions of the Commission shall be appealed within 15 days as of the day of notification before the Appeal Chamber by the Assessee and/or the Public Commissioner.

2. The international observer shall submit a written recommendation to the Public Commissioner to file an appeal. This recommendation shall be issued by a commission composed of at least 3 representatives of the International Monitoring Operation.

3. In case of appeal by the Public Commissioner, the Appeal Chamber shall adjudicate the case in hearing proceedings.

Article 66

Decision of the Appeal Chamber

1. Following the examination of a case, the Appeal Chamber shall:

- a) Confirm the decision of the Commission
- b) Modify the decision of the Commission;
- c) Overrule the decision of the Commission;

2. The Appeal Chamber, in the reasoning of its decision, may give indication to the Commission helping it to decide on similar cases.

3. The decision of Appeal Chamber ordering dismissal has ex lege immediate effect.

Article 67

Reinstatement of Time Limits

1. When the assessee and public commissioner do not file their appeal within the deadline, they shall be entitled to the reinstatement of their right to appeal within 15 days, from the date that he or she becomes aware of the reason of the forfeit of the right, but not later than the decision taken by the Assembly as provided in Article 179/b, paragraph 9 of the Constitution.

2. The request shall be reviewed by the Appeal Chamber and shall, if not submitted within the deadline, be admitted only if reasons for this are legitimate and reasonable.

CHAPTER IX

FINAL PROVISIONS

Article 68

Transitory Relations among Institutions

1. Proficiency Assessments completed by the relevant proficiency assessment body at the date of initiation of the functioning of the Commission or Appeal Chamber shall be handed over to the latter. Minutes of the handover of the legal documents, and reports related to proficiency assessments shall be signed by the representative of the proficiency assessment body and one Commissioner selected by lot.
